SUMMER

Dear Parents,

We wish you and your child a very happy Summer Holidays filled with laughter and happy moments. I want to thank you for sharing your precious little ones with me. Your children have filled my classroom with joy and wonder. I am going to miss their bright smile, innocence and curious minds during the holidays. In this break, let them explore, play, giggle and simply enjoy family time. I hope you will make wonderful memories with your child this summer.

We have prepared a set of holiday homework activities in this worksheet. We kindly request you to encourage your child to complete the work under your supervision.

So here we start

Good Habits to focus on During Holidays ->

1. Regular Hand Wash (before meal, after meal, after playing, after using the toilet).
2. Brushing his/her teeth twice a day.
3. Buttoning and unbuttoning the shirt.
4. Folding clothes. Eating green vegetables and fruits.
5. Arranging their toy shelf.
6. Learning to wear shoes and socks.
7. Greeting their elders.
8. Watering the plants.
9. Use of magic words - Please, sorry, thank you, excuse me.
10. Encourage him/her to do yoga and take them for morning/evening walks.

FUN ACTIVITIES

Blow Painting With Straws

What you need:

- Water colours
- Straws
- Thick white paper

How to Do:

Drop watercolor on paper and have kids blow through a straw to make a crazy pattern! It looks like fireworks or magic lines.

Paper Tearing Art

Let kids tear coloured paper and stick it to make a sun, ice-cream, or beach scene.
